

Miyata Yumi

Yumi is a mature, fairly no-nonsense kind of girl. Generally level-headed, she nonetheless can be impatient and distant, failing to understand the emotional complexity of a situation. She's a quick, decisive thinker and isn't afraid to speak her mind about an issue, unconcerned about offending people. If you need an honest, to-the-point perspective, Yumi's a good person to ask, though be prepared for her somewhat abrasive remarks. Despite this, she's a natural leader, and her skills make up for her rough personality, and she's generally well-liked and respected. When her followers manage to annoy her, she has been known to simply dismiss them and take on the problem herself.

Appearance:

Current:

<Attire> She wears her dark red hair in a drill style, with a small curl framing each side of her face and a single wide tress reaching to the middle of her back.

Three Years Ago:

Seen briefly in Amara Minori's flashback scene describing how Yumi discovered and unsealed her powers, Yumi wore her hair slightly shorter. Her high school uniform is a simple clean yellow/cream blazer with a black skirt.

Gown:

Her Maiden gown is a black V-neck dress with short, frilled sleeves that ends in a ruffle skirt just above her knees. A thin amber sash is tied in a bow under her chest.
